

mortgagees in the sale or get the individual property released from the charge. The register will also show if the company is in liquidation and whether a liquidator has been appointed, in which case the company cannot sell except through the liquidator.